

STEFANO RICCI

STEFANO RICCI, leader in high-quality luxury menswear, is proud to unveil its partnership with the Arturo Fuente Cigar Company, the iconic fourth generation Cuban cigar family business.

The OpusX by STEFANO RICCI travel humidor inaugurates the collaboration between STEFANO RICCI and Arturo Fuente. It is embellished by an elegant black Californian briar-root wood finishing and Australian mother of pearl inlay details. The distinguished lid displays the OpusX logo borne by the iconic STEFANO RICCI flying eagle emblem.

The special OpusX - STEFANO RICCI cigar was created as a symbol of the partnership and will only be produced in extremely limited quantities exclusively for the Ricci family, certain of their privileged customers and friends.

While not for sale, this cigar will be dedicated to the true admirers of STEFANO RICCI's best production, reserved for those who buy the OpusX by STEFANO RICCI travel humidor.

From menswear to lifestyle, this is a collaboration conceived for cigar aficionados worldwide.

STEFANO RICCI

SPRING / SUMMER 2019

A desire to sail through the vivid shades of the sea's blue. There is a constant call to the timeless pleasure of yachting, protected by matte technical silk blousons and formal pinstripe suits in ultrafine weaves of wool and cashmere. The STEFANO RICCI Spring/Summer 2019 Collection is for the man who lets himself be seduced by the colours and forms of beautiful garments, which blur between excellent sportswear and classics with contemporary silhouettes. Man and The Sea, following Charles Baudelaire's poem, is a cultivation of freedom reflected in blu Mercurio and blu Poseidon, waterproof and windproof garments that challenge the world, crossing through life with touches of Sunset orange and Syrah red. All is present for the explorer, who in the elegance of STEFANO RICCI, finds an unrivalled compass of style.
